CORRESPONDENCE.

Summit.

Weather somewhat cool. The frosts have hurried up corn cutting.

Some think the late corn was damaged by the frost. Broom corn men have been flying around in this section. One would judge from the interest they manifest in looking after that crop that it is very short this season.

Squire Wright is on the sick list at present. Other members of his family have been very sick, but are now convalescing.

Elder H. R. Price will probably commence a protracted meeting at Elizabeth Chapel the 3d Sunday in this month. An effort has been made to have Elder J. Wright present to assist him.

The class in charge of Miss Sallie Jackson, at the Chapel S. S., carried off the banner for the first month of the present quarter. Miss Sallie has shown that she is a good and competent teacher, and commands the respect and admiration of the whole school.

Mrs. George Graham, with others whose names we failed to learn, left on last Monday for St. Louis. They will take in the fair, of course. Mr. Graham took up school at the Redmon school house last Monday and, judging from the manner in which he starts in, it will be a cheap school for the district, notwithstanding the enormous price, as some thought, for which he was employed.

If we had not known that the parties were jesting, our equilibrium would have been destroyed while in Butler recently by the information that we were an aspirant for a county office. No, gentlemen, we are satisfied yet to eke out our existence on the farm. We think, however, that Summit could furnish plenty of good material if necessary.

Our old Hunter, C. Orear, in company with others of Butler and vicinity, started on an extended hunting tour in the lower counties last Thursday. All we can do is to wish them success while we long for a taste of the delicious game they so much desire to bag.

In company with Mr. Bigstaff and others of this township, we, for the first time, visited Adrian on last Thursday. We were somewhat surprised to find so much evidence of thrift and enterprise in that little city. We were informed that four papers are being published in that place. Scudder & Mills have just completed and moved into their new bank building, which is a handsome two-story brick, and would be an ornament to any city three times the size of Adrian. Besides we noticed several other substantial brick buildings in course of construction, all of which shows, as Mr. Mills said, "that Adrian is on a boom."

OBSERVER.

Vinton.

Laura Henderson left last week for Baldwin City, Kansas, where she will attend school the ensuing year. Miss Laura has numerous friends here who wish her unlimited success.

Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Nave visited the family of H. P. Nickle not long since.

Mrs. Annie Light returned last Monday from Baxter Springs, Kansas, where she has been for the past six weeks visiting her sister, Mrs. Maple.

Miss Swannie Redm will teach the winter term of school at Dana. Miss Swannie is a first-class teacher and always a favorite with her pupils.

Miss Mattie Norman has returned from Freeman, where she has been visiting her many friends. Quite useless for to say that Frank is happy but just watch him smile.

Mrs. Ike Walls was shaking hands with his many friends in this part of county last Sunday. Ike is a handsome and genial gentleman but we wonder what is the attraction here, but won't give him away, now.

Sunday school closed for this year at No. 3 last Sunday. They had a good school and large attendance, why they failed to keep the school running during the winter is a mystery I cannot solve.

Miss Flo Forbes will teach the Forbes school the ensuing winter, price, $40 per month. Mr. Weldon Yates the school at Silverdale, at $40 per month. Good round price, but they are both first-class teachers. The school at No. 2 is without a teacher. Must be hard to please.

Quite a number of young ladies are going to attend high school from this neighborhood, among whom are Mary Lyle will go to Baldwin City, Kansas; Mary Tipton, Lacynne, Kansas; Laura Lee Clark, Freeman, Mo. Girls, you have the best wishes of Con Gle Ton. How I long for vacation.

Mr. Tommie Canford spent several days at Louisburg, Kansas, last week, visiting friends. He reports good crops and lots of pretty girls. Expect to hear of his taking a similar trip in the near future.

Miss Kate Sheets has been very sick, but at this writing she is convalescent.

Miss Jessie Fussell, of Sedalia, is spending the week with Miss May Crawford, at Rocky Point Farm.

Theodore Green sold 42 head of three year old steers at $4 per hundred. Al Walley sold 12 head of two year olds at the same, and to the same parties. The name we failed to learn, but were Cass county men.

Wonder if a charming little lady from here did create fun among the young gallants at the Baptist association. We think she did if all reports are true. "Oh no" we were not there.

Wonder if Wm. Fleenor's head got cold the night he lost his hat, and had to go home without any and with handkerchief tied over his head. (greater wonder, did he have any hat to lose.)

Willie Crawford and Mattie Nave were visiting Annie Nickle not long since and report a pleasant time. We believe that to be the verdict of all who visit at the residence of H. P. Nickle.

Mrs. A. M. Crawford and daughter Clydia, have been very sick, but we are happy to announce that at the present they are both convalescent, and we hope for them a speedy recovery.

Wm. Scott and family will leave for Adrian this fall where they will make their future home. In losing them we lose valuable citizens, but wish them success.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bard were in this part of the country last Saturday. They have many friends here who gladly welcome them. Come again.

Why is it that the correspondent from northwest Bates have failed to second the nomination made by Brownie for the offices of Recorder and Sheriff. We don't think there could be found more capable gentlemen than Messrs. Simpson and Willis in the democrat ranks, and it would be utterly impossible for the rats to beat them. I heartily second Brownie's nominations with the assurance that if the above named gentlemen can be prevailed on to run they will carry northwest Bates by a rousing majority. Let's hear from Silabuster, Plow Boy, and Leilia. What have you to say.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Crumley, from near Butler, spent several days with their relatives at this place last week.

Mr. Bob Connell and bride who have been visiting Mr. Jessie Connell, father of the groom, have returned to their home at Liberty, Mo. The Vinton base ball club will play the Liberty club at their ground next Saturday.

Mr. Henderson's oil well is proving even better than it was first judged to be. They are now taking two barrels a day.

WEDDING IN HIGH LIFE.

At the residence of Mr. Rosier, West Union, Iowa, Sept. 10th, 1885, Mr. Lee Stewart, of this place, and Miss May Rosier, were united by the Rev. Gardner. By 7 o'clock Thursday eve the Rosier mansion was aglow with light and the spacious rooms were filled with guest from far and near to witness the happy event. The announcement that the minister had arrived drew the guests into the tastefully arranged parlor. At 8 o'clock the attendants filed in and separated, leaving a space for the bride and groom who followed and took their stand between the attendants. The Rev. Gardner tied a very effectual knot and the twain were made one for all time. The Bride was attired in handsome Russian blue gown and silk the groom wore black evening suit. The attendants were Miss Josie Stewart of this place and Prof. Cris Rosier of Quincy Ills. Miss Josie's costume was a lovely dress of wine grain silk. Now Mr. editor to explain this intrusion: being a reader of your valuable paper, and seeing that your correspondent from this place was going to quit, and thinking Vinton worthy of a one (although a poor one I will prove) with your permission will send a few items once in awhile until some more worthy one takes my place.
